

COLD STORAGE WAREHOUSING & DESIGN / BUILD CONSTRUCTION

Tippmann Group is a unique combination of Interstate Warehousing and Tippmann Construction. The company is dedicated to safe and efficient design, construction and operation of multi-temperature distribution and processing facilities for the food industry. In business since 1968, our refrigeration expertise and owner/operator experience make Tippmann Group your single-source provider for all your temperature-controlled warehousing and construction needs.

- 4th largest PRW in United States (data from GCCA)
- 130,000,000+ cubic feet of cold storage warehouse space in the U.S.A.
- 7 facilities with SQF food safety certification: Anderson, IN, Franklin, IN, Hamilton, OH, Murfreesboro, TN, Joliet, IL, Denver, CO, Kingman, AZ
- Customized distribution solutions
- Red Prairie WMS
- Blast Freezing capabilities
- Retail and Foodservice consolidation programs
- Comprehensive management development & training program
- Multiple facility sites “pad ready” for expansion
- Expanding and growing, actively exploring other cities for new locations
- Design/Build Construction of multi-temperature distribution & processing facilities
- Land acquisition & master site planning
- Local & state economic development negotiations
- 50+ years of experience in the refrigeration industry
- 4,000,000+ square feet of temperature controlled warehouse, distribution and manufacturing space built in the past 3 years
- Automation / Material handling systems integration
- Owner/operator experience & knowledge
- Interstate Warehousing staff available to assist construction customers with training & start-up
- Evaluate construction R.O.I. as an owner would, because we are also owners
- Expansions & renovations of existing facilities
- Project management & construction
- Extensive “Safety First” program

